Noche Buena
2012 Holiday Horse

16th in a Collectible Series

Put this best-selling holiday horse on your shelves, and watch it prance home with your customers! Decorated with vibrant red poinsettias and glittering gems, Noche Buena wears a jeweled saddle resting on a poinsettia pad and gold halter with jewel details. Poinsettias are traditionally associated with the holidays, and are also called "Flowers of the Holy Night!" because of a Mexican legend where a child's Christmas offering of weeds on a church altar blossomed into poinsettias! This hand-decorated holiday horse has "Season's Greetings" printed in gold lettering on his belly.

Noche Buena
Stirrup Ornament

Fans of Breyer's Hoilday Horse always add the stirrup ornament to their order! An exquisitely detailed miniature of Breyer's 2012 Holiday Horse, Noche Buena is created of artist's resin and is framed inside a traditional silver-tone stirrup. Adorned with poinsettia flowers, the ornament hangs from a satin ribbon and features a small poinsettia flower drop dangling from the top of the stirrup. Poinsettias are traditionally associated with the holidays, and are also called "Flowers of the Holy Night" because of a Mexican legend where a child's Christmas offering of weeds on a church altar blossomed into poinsettias!

Peruvian Paso
Beautiful Breeds Ornament

This series of fine bisque porcelain ornaments celebrates beautiful breeds from around the world. The joyful spirit and brio of the Peruvian Paso are captured in this ornament, sculpted by artist Sommer Prosser. This lovely shaded bay radiates holiday charm, with red and green ribbons that flow from a poinsettia on its gold-colored halter.

Artist Signature Ornament
By Sommer Prosser

This beautiful hand-blown glass ornament features the artistry of Sommer Prosser. Prosser sculpted the original Breyer models that inspired this ornament, and she created the lovely paintings that decorate the beautiful red glass. One side features a smoky black Appaloosa hunter mare, and the other a dappled rose grey National Show Horse. An old-fashioned street lantern hanging in the background bathes the horses in a soft light as they move across the snow-covered ground. This classically styled ornament is a fantastic gift.

Melody
Prancer Carousel Horse

Carousels have always held a special magic for both children and adults, and this ornament brings that magic to the holidays! Melody, a beautifully shaded dark grey carousel horse, is adorned golden jingle bells and a horn so she can carry the music of the season with her. Crafted of fine porcelain, Melody is bedecked with poinsettias and red and green ribbons, and her unique saddle has lovely gold and green decorative trim.
